

RE.THINK LEADERSHIP IS PROUD TO PRESENT

URBAN TRANSFORMERS 2015

PARTICIPANT APPLICATION FORM

What is Urban Transformers?

It is a programme that is designed to be fun and exciting, while providing a platform for youth from a wide variety of communities to engage in meaningful dialogue about the challenges that face our society. It also provides an opportunity for youth to design and implement creative solutions for effecting positive change.

Who can apply?

Anyone who is turning 16-19 years old and not entering Grade 12 in 2015, interested in learning new things and challenging themselves, and willing to commit to attending two, weekend camps and ten fortnightly workshops over 6 months. The workshops are usually 3 hours long.

Programme outline

Retreat 1: 17 - 19 April at Chrysalis Academy, Tokai, Cape Town

Retreat 2: 24 - 26 July at Groot Drakenstein Centre in Simondium, Franschoek

10 workshops: (April - September)

Graduation: Early October

When is the application due? Your application should reach us no later than

Friday 27 March 2015

Some feedback from past participants:

"Being part of Re.think Leadership has changed my life in many ways. It made me do challenging things that I did not think I was capable of doing." -Maqsood Cassiem, Rylands High School, participant in 2010, currently a student at Stellenbosch University

"I learned to ask for help...and to listen better." – Lindokuhle Qona, Intsebenziswano Senior Secondary School, 2012 participant

"I've got lots of new friends now!" – Naazia Parker, Westerford High School, 2012 participant

About Re.think Leadership

Re.think Leadership cultivates youth leadership through dialogue. It was founded in October 2009 by six young people (aged 20-25) and is currently run by a team of nine volunteers and two full-time employees, all of whom have experience in dialogue facilitation. The organisation works primarily with Cape Town youth and runs two main projects – Urban Transformers and un[convention]al.
